Holy Communion

Introit – Psalm 33:1-5

Rejoice in the Lord, O ye righteous;

For it becometh well the just to be thankful.

Praise the Lord with harp:

Sing praises unto him with the lute, and instrument of ten strings.

Sing unto the Lord a new song:

Sing praises lustily with a good courage.

For the word of the Lord is true,

And all his works are faithful.

He loveth righteousness and judgement:

The earth is full of the goodness of the Lord.

p 182 “Christ our passover ...”

p 69 The Summary of the Law

p 191 The Collect of the Day

First Reading – Acts 3:12-19 (p. 771)

Reader: The Lesson is written in the 3rd Chapter of Acts beginning at the 12th verse.

Reader: Here endeth the Lesson.

Psalm 4

Hear me when I call, O God of my righteousness:

thou hast set me at liberty when I was in trouble;

have mercy upon me, and hearken unto my prayer.

O ye sons of men, how long will ye blaspheme mine honour,

and have such pleasure in vanity, and seek after falsehood?

Know this also, that the Lord hath chosen to himself the man that is godly;

when I call upon the Lord, he will hear me.

Stand in awe, and sin not;

commune with your own heart, and in your chamber, and be still.

Offer the sacrifice of righteousness,

and put your trust in the Lord.

There be many that say, 'Who will show us any good?'

Lord, lift thou up the light of thy countenance upon us.

Thou hast put gladness in my heart,

more than men have when their grain and wine increase.

I will lay me down in peace, and take my rest;

for it is thou, Lord, only, that makest my dwell in safety.

Second Reading – 1 John 3:1-11 (p. 863)

Reader: The Epistle is written in the 3rd Chapter of First John beginning at the First verse.

Reader: Here endeth the Epistle.

The hymns are in "The Celebration Hymnal" in the pew.

The Communion

In Anglican churches, everyone who is baptized is welcome to come and receive communion. You may kneel or stand at the altar rail to receive communion. If you are unable to come to the altar rail, please notify the sides people and they will alert the Communion Servers to come to you. You may receive communion at either the front or at the rear of the church, when available.

Communion consists of two parts: a small wafer, “the body of Christ” and a cup with wine, “the blood of Christ.” These will be offered to you with the saying: “The body (blood) of Christ given (shed) for you.”

You receive the wafer in your outstretched cupped hands. Please note that gluten-free wafers are available at the front – just ask the server. You drink from the cup when the server offers it to you. You may assist the server by holding the cup when it is offered.

It is customary to eat the wafer when you receive it and then drink from the cup when it is offered to you. (The Anglican Church of Canada reports “... that the present use of the common cup is normative for Anglican churches, follows the practice of the universal church from its beginnings until well into the middle ages, and poses no real hazard to health in normal circumstances.” “Communion in only one kind (the bread) is the best option for those fearful of the cup.”)

If you would like to come forward for a blessing instead of communion, please indicate this by crossing your arms over your chest. The same is true if you wish to “pass” on the communion cup.

Communion is an important part of our worship. Please use this time to prayerfully prepare yourself for communion and to reflect on Jesus’ gift after you have received communion. You may find singing the Communion Hymns helpful. Please refrain from talking during this time.
